

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the practice of physical therapy involves a variety of aspects from injury prevention to general health and fitness to rehabilitation following an injury, disease or surgery; and

WHEREAS, physical therapy helps improve the quality of life and physical well being of people of all ages, including cardiac patients, children, athletes and the elderly; and

WHEREAS, the Colorado Chapter of the American Physical Therapy Association represents physical therapists, assistants and students in Colorado, including Karie Allen, Lori Benisch, Brett Beuning, Robin Braden, Joe Bryant, Anna Crankshaw, Molly Crispin, Brian Forman, Lisa Hoel, Leah Luther, Cameron Lyons, Nancy Matthews, Kristi McDonnel, Nancy Mulligan, Jasmine Powell-Hogan, Emily Randolph, Roger Rettig, Kathy Schell, Rob Schultz, Julie Stuart, Allison Theen, Charlene Urbancic, Cindy Vair, Karen Vizyak, Jeffrey Youngberg, Jill Zilles and Jennifer Zink, all of Broomfield; and

WHEREAS, through physical therapy practice, education and research, physical therapists are able to prevent disease, promote health, reduce pain and enhance the quality of life; and

WHEREAS, Broomfield recognizes the importance of enhancing the physical health of citizens and wishes to recognize those who dedicate their time and talent to that end.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karen Stuart, Mayor of the City and County of Broomfield, do hereby proclaim the month of October, 2005, as

PHYSICAL THERAPY MONTH IN BROOMFIELD

I DO FURTHER call upon all citizens to recognize the contributions of these dedicated professionals.

Given under my hand and Seal of the City and County of Broomfield this twenty-seventh day of September, 2005.

Karen Stuart

Karen Stuart, Mayor